We need your help! Your CCSE Federal Credit Union is in the process of developing an e-mail database of our membership so that we can let you know via e-mail when new products or special loan rates become available. In the future, you will also have a choice of receiving your monthly and/or quarterly statement via e-mail in a much more timely manner.

The information provided below will be collected and disclosed in strict accordance with the Credit Union's privacy policy and practices, with the exception that the information below may be disclosed to The Financial Planning Center, an affiliate of the Credit Union.

Please print out this form and complete the information below. Mail or fax it to your Credit Union or drop it off during your next visit. We appreciate your assistance in providing this information so that we can improve our service to our members. Thank you.
